"Happiness depends on ourselves" - Aristotle

Sage is an aspiring Pharmacist doing her undergrad at the University of South Carolina. She enjoys baking, gaming, and reading in her free time. One of her goals is to help those who are less fortunate and bring more diversity to the pharmaceutical field. She knows the gap there is for minorities and women in her field, so she would like to be an inspiration for others. Sage is looking for off-campus housing and is worried about the living situation with her new roommates. She would rather avoid confrontation and big arguments, but does not know how to. Additionally, she is looking for a platform that allows for easy communication and a way to manage tasks among her and her roommates.

"With great power comes great responsibility" - Ben Riley

Braeden is a student at Coastal Carolina aiming for an undergraduate degree in Computer Science. He wishes to create programs that will bring about a positive change for the public, as well as become financially successful to support his family and friends. Braeden is going to live off campus next year, but he doesn't have anyone he can room with. Therefore, Braeden is stuck with people he doesn't know, and is worried about if they will contribute to the living area.
